

Ann Cohen is the Executive Vice President of Accounting, Finance & Technology at The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA).

Ann has over 20 years of experience in the financial services, banking, big four audit, real estate, not-for-profit, and hospitality industries. She is skilled in bank financing, bankruptcy, IPOs, systems integrations, acquisitions, mergers and divestitures.

Prior to working at The IIA, Ann was responsible for financial reporting, risk management, payroll, federal and state tax compliance and preparation, debt financing, treasury, purchasing, information technology (I.T.), budgeting, strategic planning, membership and communications at Woodfield Country Club.

Ann is skilled at core finance functions for diversified business environments including operational accounting, budgeting, financial analysis, external reporting, board presentations, Sarbanes Oxley (SOX), strategic planning and operational analysis.

Ann earned a Master's degree in Finance from Florida International University and a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from the University of Florida. She is a board member, Audit Committee Chair, and on the Member Compensation Committee at ChromaDex Corporation (CDXC).

