

Chief People Officer

Janet Ghosh, MBA, SHRM-SCP

Janet Ghosh is the Chief People Officer at The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA).

Janet has more than 25 years of experience leading talent management, innovation, and leadership development for global organizations such as Stanley Black & Decker and Siemens. Janet is passionate about people and firmly believes that an organization's talent is the key differentiator in today's competitive business environment.

At The IIA, Janet is responsible for infusing innovation and excellence into our People Team initiatives, encompassing various aspects such as recruitment, growth, employee retention, and team engagement. Collaborating closely with the leadership team, she actively contributes to building a dynamic and collaborative organizational culture that supports The IIA's endeavors to forge a forward-looking profession.

Janet considers herself a global citizen, having lived and worked in five countries. Her experience with different nationalities and cultures provides her with unique perspectives that benefit her team and the organization.

Janet earned a Masters in Business Administration in Human Resource Management from Narsee Monjee Institute of Management Studies (NMIMS) in Mumbai, India. She is also a Senior Certified Professional from the Society of Human Resources Management (SHRM-SCP).